

From building lasting relationships to educating the benefits of home care this is networking.

Are you self-motivated, dedicated and dependable? Do you love to go above and beyond to help others?

At FirstLight® Home Care, we're dedicated to hiring people who have a passion for excellence. We are looking for individuals who believe in fostering teamwork and collaboration and who have a heart for helping us grow and succeed so that we can provide exceptional care and compassion to our clients everyday. We're currently searching for a Networker/Community Liaison who is committed to making a difference in the lives of others.

When we find these amazing professionals, we believe in taking really good care of them because individuals who believe in the FirstLight Culture of Care – our commitment to service excellence, personal growth and accountability – will help us improve the lives of our clients and their families.

Networker responsibilities include:

- Identify and develop relationships with various referral sources
- Visit existing referral sources to maintain and grow relationships
- Effectively establish a rapport with referral sources and clients
- Take initiative and determine actions to meet goals
- Educate others on the benefits of home care and FirstLight
- Participate in networking events, especially as they relate to the senior population

The ideal candidate will have:

- Background in business, marketing or other related field
- Two to five years of related networking/community liaison experience and/or training
- Exceptional knowledge of non-medical home care or healthcare industry
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills to create and nurture long-lasting relationships
- Ability to effectively manage the demands of the job

FirstLight offers:

- Competitive pay and advancement opportunities
- Freedom to set your own schedule
- Culture of Care environment
- Exceptional support team

FirstLight Home Care is a leading provider of non-medical home care services, helping individuals achieve the quality of life they deserve. We are a lifeline and peace of mind not only for seniors, but for people recovering from illness, injury or surgery; adults with disabilities; new and busy mothers; veterans; and anyone over the age of 18 who needs extra assistance.
