ARE PLEASED TO HOST A WEBINAR DISCUSSION WITH A PANEL OF PROFESSIONALS.
THEY WILL ANSWER MANY QUESTIONS INCLUDING:

- What is the difference between Independent Living and Assisted Living?
- Do I need a Will or Trust?
- What kind of care can be provided at home?
- What if my siblings and I can't agree on where Mom should be living?
- What is the financial impact of an extended illness?

Wendy Adlerstein, LSW

Director of Client Care Services, FirstLight Home Care of West Suburban Boston, Needham, MA

Over a twenty-year career in social work, Wendy has managed programs which have provided services to seniors, helping to connect older adults and their families with the right solutions to meet their needs.

Lisa Burke, M.S.

Principal, Step with Care LLC, Westwood, MA

Having seen family and friends struggle with the sometimes overwhelming tasks associated with senior residential transitions, Lisa founded Step with Care to assist families in identifying appropriate residential options and planning for smooth transitions.

Maryjeanne Hunt, Agent, with Paul Collard, LTC Product Consultant²

New York Life Insurance Company, Waltham, MA

As a New York Life agent, Maryjeanne works with families to identify their financial goals, understand their needs, and provide funding solutions using insurance and other financial products. She's been helping retirees and their families protect and prepare for the future since 2009.

Deborah Danger, Esq., LL.M. (Taxation)

Estate Planning Attorney, DangerLaw LLC, Newton, MA

As a trusts and estate attorney, Deborah considers her primary professional responsibilities to be making it easier for her clients to enjoy their lives by helping make their final wishes come true. She also supports clients and their families accommodate aging, illness and change.

Ellen Waldorf, Esq.

Mediator at eWaldorf Mediation, Newton, MA

For fifteen years, Ellen has used mediation to help families in transition. Ellen enables clients navigating change to voice their concerns and interests and still effectively function as a family in the long run.
